Specific educational objectives

This course deals with the more practical side of setting up a business. It covers questions of the legal form of the business, administrative practices, sources of financing in South-Tyrol but also questions of team building and equity distributions in new ventures. The course is a natural follow-up to the ‘Introduction to Entrepreneurship’ – course offered in the first semester.

Parts of the course will be offered in collaboration with the Chamber of Commerce and will leverage on external expertise.

In this course, students learn the essential practical steps in setting up a business.
